MR. WILCOX DECLINES

Capt. W. W. Dey Re-Elected Chairman of Democratic Committee.

Another Meeting of Committee To-Night—Judge Wilcox Gives Reasons Why He Cannot Serve as Chairman, Thinking the Committee for Confidence in Him.

Judge Thomas H. Wilcox has declined the chairmanship of the City Democratic Executive Committee, and Captain W. W. Dey, who recently resigned from this position, was last night unanimously re-elected.

The Executive Committee meeting last night, at which Judge Wilcox's declination was received, was held at the office of Colonel W. W. Sale, Mr.
T. J. Randolph, the secretary, presiding. Judge Wilcox's letter was addressed to the committee appointed to notify him of his election, and was only handed to that committee late yesterday afternoon. It is as follows:

"Messrs. W. W. Sale, T. J. Randolph and W. R. Johnson, Committee:
"Gentlemen: In response to your notification of my unanimous election as chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, I must say that I am unable to accept this honor.

"Some weeks ago, at the solicitation of those interested in the success of the Democratic party, I agreed to accept this position if agreeable to those who had announced themselves as candidates for office at the coming primary, and withdrew my name as a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney for this purpose.

"Upon reflection, however, I prefer holding, as I do, the position of Police Commissioner and being thereby so closely identified with one of the candidates, not to serve as chairman, and I must therefore decline.

"It would have given me great pleasure to aid you in harmonizing party differences, and in trying to so conduct the primary as to give satisfaction to every one.

"Thinking each member for his confidence in me, and assuring them of my willingness to aid as a private, I am, "THOMAS H. WILCOX."

When this was read, Mr. W. R. Johnson, of the First ward, arose, and expressing regret at Judge Wilcox's declination, moved that the committee recall the resignation of Captain Dey and re-elect him chairman. Mr. Johnson said that Captain Dey had made a good chairman, and would, if he could be prevailed upon to accept, please all the Democrats of the city.

He said the management of a primary had been taken out of the hands of the Executive Committee, and Captain Dey could hold the chairmanship and be a candidate with propriety. Attention was called to the fact that Mr.
W. W. Young held the chairmanship six years ago when a candidate for Clerk of the Courts.

Other gentlemen spoke in favor of Captain Dey's re-election, and the motion was put by acting Chairman Randolph and unanimously carried.

Messrs. Berry, Knapp and Jaques were appointed a committee to notify Captain Dey of the committee's action, and a meeting of the committee will be held to-night, at which his decision will be made known.

It is probable that at to-night's meeting the committee will order a primary and name the date for holding same.

Evidence Against Ramsey.
Detective Heppel went to Suffolk yesterday, and, with Sheriff Norfleet, of Nansemond county, searched the house of Cornelius Ramsey, father of the negro, Brooks Ramsey, who was shot last Tuesday morning by Policeman Samuel E. Sayer. It is believed that the search was fruitful in finding other evidence connecting the dead desperado with unsolved burglaries that have occurred in this city. A gentleman's light suit of clothes and a ladies' cloak were found. Brooks Ramsey gave the former to his father and the latter to his mother-in-law, October.
While the clothes have not been identified as yet, it is believed that they were stolen by the negro.

Showman Badly Burned.
"Lone" Billy Pryde, a member of the show company of Dr. Bennett, the Quaker doctor, was badly burned Thursday night about 8 o'clock as the out-door show performance was about to begin, at the corner of Lee and Church streets. A gasoline lamp got to blazing, and Pryde burned his hands and arms in trying to put it out. Jimmie Taylor, another show employee, smothered the flames with a curtain.
Pryde is resting easier to-day.

ANOTHER AMUSEMENT PLACE.

MESSRS. LEATH AND WELLS
LOOKING OVER NORFOLK.

Mr. Thomas G. Leath, manager of the Academy of Music at Richmond, as well as at Norfolk, and various other theatres throughout Virginia, accompanied by Mr. Jake Wells, manager of the "Bijou" and one of the summer park theatres at Richmond, were in Norfolk yesterday on business connected with a new amusement place for Norfolk.

It is understood that these gentlemen have for some time been under the impression that a first-class, thoroughly clean and up-to-date vaudeville house will be a paying institution in Norfolk. Yesterday they looked over the city for a site for a theatre of this class, either a vacant lot or a building that can be rebuilt and used as a theatre.

They returned last night to Richmond. It is understood that they have not decided on anything, but will further consider several locations that may perhaps be available. It is not, however, probable that the theatre will be open this fall as the projectors wished to have it.

The requirements of the gentlemen interested call for a site that is centrally located, in a desirable locality, and not too high in price.

NEW CITY MAP.
SHOWS EVERY RECORDED PLAT IN THIS SECTION, NEW STREETS, ETC.

For the past seven months Mr. Walter Sharp has been at work, in conjunction with Mr. H. L. Page, in preparing a new map of the Norfolk section, and copies were received here yesterday.

The map is about 5x6 feet in size, and shows Norfolk, Portsmouth, Berkley, Plimmer's Point, West Norfolk, Port Norfolk, the Lambert's Point district, Park Place, Villa Heights and all of our other suburbs.

The recently opened streets, including all changes made up to December 15th last, are shown in the new map.

IN THEIR HANDS

Registrars of Norfolk Now Have the Much Talked of Lists.

About 1,000 to 2,000 Names of the Dead, and Persons Who Have Been Convicted in the Corporation Court, Made Out by Clerk Royster.

Some few days ago the Virginian-Pilot representative interviewed the Registrars of the voting precincts of Norfolk in regard to the correction of the registration books in their charge.

The general reply of the Registrars was that they could not legally proceed to correct their books, as the lists of dead and convicted persons had not been furnished them as prescribed by the Code of Virginia.

The Virginian-Pilot also stated that Clerk of Court Royster was hard at work preparing such lists for the Registrars.

Mr. Royster put two of his own clerks at work on the job, and also employed an extra clerk in order to expedite the work as fast as possible.
This work, he states, he has done entirely at his own cost.

LIBBY FOR CONGRESS

A Meeting of Wise Republicans of Elizabeth City County.

Ex-Congressman Harry Libby Selected for County Chairman by the Wise Faction—Strong Sentiment Developing in Favor of Unloading the Doctor.

The following, which are taken from the Newport News Press, accounts of a meeting of Wise Republicans at Hampton:

The Wise faction of the Elizabeth City county Republicans held their county convention in Jerusalem Hall Thursday, when delegates to the district convention, which meets in Hampton on April 4, were selected.

The following delegates were elected: District Convention—Thomas Kennedy, J. H. Robinson, R. H. Banks, Harry Libby and George R. Wood.
Alternates—E. C. Jones and H. Gathright.

State Convention—John Chisman, J.
H. Robinson, William Trusty, George R. Wood and Andrew Williams.
Alternates—H. J. Cooper and Henry Stevenson.

Member Congressional Committee—Thomas Kennedy.
County Committee—Harry Libby, chairman, and George R. Wood, J. H.
Robinson and Andrew Williams.

MR. LIBBY FOR CONGRESS.
The meeting yesterday of these Republicans was very significant and although working under the head of the Wise faction it was anything but favorable to that gentleman for re-election to Congress. While no expression along this line was given in the convention, several of the members talked over a suitable candidate after Professor of whom was Libby.

"Mr. Libby will be our choice for Congress this year," said a well-known Republican. "We believe if Mr. Libbey is nominated it will have the effect of reuniting the party again, as both factions seem favorably impressed with the idea." Continuing, he said every possible means would be resorted to to secure the nomination for the ex--Congressman.

"WISE WILL TALK."
Mr. Libby, when approached on the subject, said his friends had very kindly mentioned his name, but as yet he had not made any definite determination in the matter. He referred to the many obstacles which would necessarily have to be overcome in landing the nomination, and with an air characteristic of him, very forcibly remarked that time would tell.

Mr. Libby served one term in the National House and it is said by workers in both factions of the Republicans that if he is successful in securing the nomination of his faction that the other faction will heartily endorse him.

NORFOLK LEADERS.
A Virginian-Pilot reporter saw Col.
J. R. Waddy and Hon. George E. Bowden, prominent leaders in the Wise and Holland factions, respectively, and asked them what they thought of the chances of Mr. Libby, or any other Republican, harmonizing the party differences.

Colonel Waddy said if Mr. Libby should become a candidate, which he doubted, he would make a good race.
He didn't know what the chances of bringing the factions together were.
Mr. Bowden refused to talk.

Y. M. C. A. STAR COURSE.
IT WAS CLOSED BRILLIANTLY LAST NIGHT BY THE OTTUMWAS.

The Y. M. C. A. star course was brilliantly closed last night by the Ottumwas. This is a male quartette company, composed of Edward Weeks, first tenor; B. B. Brock, second tenor; E. W.
Peterson, baritone; Geo. H. Sott, basso, and Jessie Kleiman, reciter.

Ottumwa is the beautiful Indian word for "rippling water," and the same is not misapplied, for the sweet, rippling melody of the quartette pleased all who heard it.

FUNERALS YESTERDAY.

CAPT. W. W. RAWLINS.
The obsequies of the late Captain William W. Rawlins, whose death has been previously noted in these columns, were held from the family residence, No. 294 Granby street, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and were largely attended.

Virginia Conclave No. 1, Heptastophs, or S. W. M., and Wyandotte Tribe No. 40, I. O. R. M., of which he was a member, were each present in a body; also delegations from Frie-ship, Columbia and Harmony Colclaves of Heptasophs. The services were conducted by Rev. R. M. Chandler, of Centenary M. E. Church, who spoke very tenderly of the deceased, saying that he was with him the day before his death, and that he had told him he had implicit trust in Christ as his Saviour. The floral offerings were very handsome. The remains were laid to rest in the new section of Cedar Grove Cemetery. Following were the bearers:

Heptasophs, or S. W. M.—Past Grand Archon W. F. Gregory.
Virginia Conclave No. 1—Past Archon J. S. Addison.
Harmony Conclave No. 11—Peter Dickson.
Wyandotte Tribe, Red Men—Past Sachems Samuel McCauley, C. K.
Walker and George W. Hill.

A large number of the friends of the deceased accompanied the procession to the grave on foot.

MR. DORRIS J. PADON.
The remains of Dorris J. Padon, an account of whose drowning appeared in these columns, arrived here on the Washington steamer yesterday morning, accompanied by relatives and friends, and were taken over the Virginia Beach road to London Bridge Baptist Church, where at noon the funeral was solemnized. The interment was in the church cemetery.

Fire in a Balloon.
A large crowd gathered on the grounds opposite the Church street power house yesterday afternoon to witness a balloon ascension given by Prof. Abell. The balloon was to have started up at 5 o'clock, and it did, not in the air, however, but in flames.

About the above named time a small tongue of fire was discovered issuing from the top. The men acted quickly and soon subdued the flames. The whole upper part of the balloon was damaged considerably, but the manager stated it would be repaired in time for another ascension Monday afternoon at the usual time and place.

It is said the management has closed a contract with several candidates for municipal offices to use the balloon in announcing their candidacy.

Siren's Sunday Cruise.
Lieutenant Hudgins and a party of Naval Reserves will try the Siren Sunday after her winter's rest. The little warship has been coaled up and "stores" were put aboard of her yesterday. The party will leave Norfolk about 9 a. m. Sunday and cruise up the bay.

Colonel Sale and Judge Portlock will be among the guests of the Reserves.

An Ordinance

PROHIBITING THE WEARING OF HATS OR ANY ADORNMENT ON THE HEAD IN ANY PLACE OF PUB-LIC AMUSEMENT TO WHICH AN ADMISSION FEE IS CHARGED.

(1) Be it ordained by the Common and Select Councils of the City of Norfolk, that it shall be unlawful in any place of public amusement to which an admission fee is charged for any person, irrespective of sex, to wear a hat or any ornament or adornment on the head liable to prevent those sitting in the rear of such person from obtaining a view of the stage.

(2) It shall be the duty of the proprietors, managers or other persons in charge of such places of public amusement to which this ordinance applies to see to its enforcement, and for a failure on their part so to do they shall be punishable by a fine of not less than two dollars nor more than ten dollars, recoverable as other city fines are now recoverable.
